

Stanford Memorial Church University Public Worship

Summer Sacred Music Series

2 July 2023

11:00 a.m

WELCOME TO UNIVERSITY PUBLIC WORSHIP

The intention of University Public Worship is to provide a spiritually nurturing environment where the weekly gathered community can experience the presence of God. We acknowledge that the way each person knows and experiences God is unique, and each person uses language to describe their understanding and experience of God in different ways. To honor the difference and diversity of experience and expression, the leadership involved in crafting weekly worship seeks to embody an expansive understanding of God in our language and music. For this reason we seek to use a range of images, pronouns, and names for God recognizing that our expression or description of God should not be limited to one image, gender, or culture. If the language you encounter in our music, prayers, or liturgy makes it difficult for you to celebrate and worship with an open heart –please feel free to change the words, or refrain from speaking words, as you feel appropriate and comfortable. It is our deep hope that you will find yourself and the presence of God here today.

CALL TO COMMUNITY

Rev. Dr. Sakena Young-Scaggs

Responses of the people are in bold.

I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord,
Our feet shall stand within Thy gates, O Jerusalem.

For a day in Thy courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For the sake of the house of our God, I will seek your good.

Those that are planted in the house of the Lord, shall flourish in the courts of our God.

Blessed are they that dwell in your house. O God, I have loved thy habitation, the place where your honor dwells.

For the Lord is in the holy temple, let all the earth keep silence.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, O Lord, Our Strength and Our Redeemer.

O sing to the Lord a new song, for God has done marvelous things.
Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all the earth, and sing praises.

OPENING HYMN

Joyful, Joyful

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Una Mesa para todos (One Table for All)

O Lord God, just as you have welcomed us when we were strangers with no home, just as you have taken us in when others said, “No,” we ourselves seek to welcome those who have come to worship and praise your holy name. Help us to all take a posture of welcome and hospitality this day!

So as we pray this prayer in many tongues today, help us to hear with hearts of faith.

Una Mesa para todos (One Table for All)

En este día, oh Señor, nos encontramos frente a tu mesa como una familia, pues bebemos de un mismo Espíritu, uno es nuestro bautismo y una es nuestra fe. Para esta gran familia de tu amor, no hay frontera ni nacionalidad, ni raza, lengua o cultura que nos separe. A todas tus criaturas, mujeres, hombres, niños, jóvenes y ancianos nos invitas a celebrar nuestra unidad y a anunciar tu sacrificio.

Ayúdanos, oh Señor, a extender la invitación a tu cena para que toda persona pueda satisfacer su hambre y sed de justicia.

En tu santo nombre lo rogamos. Amén.

On this day, O Lord, we gather around your table as one family, we drink from the same Spirit, we have one baptism, we have one faith. For this family, which you hold so dear, there are no barriers, no nationalities, no race or tongue, and no culture that could separate us. You invite all your children, women, men, young, and old to celebrate our unity and to announce your great sacrifice.

Help us, O Lord, to extend your invitation to all your children to gather at your table to quench their hunger and thirst for justice.

We pray in your holy name. Amen.

And also with you.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Merciful God, We confess that, though we claim to love you, our lives do not always reflect that love. We offer hospitality out of obligation instead of love, out of care for our own well-being instead of that of others. We hesitate to welcome others out of fear of rejection instead of extending compassion as the fruit of your love for us. In our relationships at work, home, and even church, too often we choose expediency instead of integrity, believing the ends justify the means. Help us, we pray. Free us to live as your children who welcome, nurture, and love our neighbors as we learn to grow as disciples of Christ. Amen.

Written by Dr. Lisa Hancock, Discipleship Ministries, January 2023.

CLOSING SELECTION Jauchzet dem Herrn alle Welt
Felix Mendelssohn

CLOSING REMARKS and BENEDICTION

Rev. Dr. Sakena Young-Scaggs

May God keep you safe
May your bellies be full
May your thirst be quenched
May your hearts be blessed
With knowing you are loved
And may you share that love
With all who come your way
Amen.

Henry van Dyke was a noted church leader, U.S. ambassador, Navy chaplain, and prolific writer. Many people associate this hymn with Beethoven's ninth symphony, but few are aware of the original poem by the German classicist F. Schiller (1759–1805) that inspired Beethoven.
